Prepare your strategy to dominate the world market

In this era of a rapidly growing industrial revolution, business opportunities are wide open. With great opportunities means there will also be many competitors. Then a strategy is needed to become the ruler of the world market

"It's not easy to build a business. But that doesn't mean it's impossible"

What should we do?

Complex Problem Solving

The ability to think clearly and deeply about a problem by identifying, selecting information related to the problem, determining solution options and then evaluating them, and implementing options as solutions to overcome these problems.

Critical Thinking

Ability to think critically and provide feedback accompanied by logical reasons.

Creativity

The ability to find something unique and original. It doesn't have to be completely new, but you can also develop what already exists.

People Management

Ability to manage people, including leadership skills.

Coordinating With Other

Ability to work collaboratively with others, both inside and outside the team.

Emotion Intelligence

Ability to regulate emotions. This includes the ability to identify, manage and utilize emotions.

Judgment And Decision Making

The ability to make decisions under any conditions, including when under pressure.

Service Orientation

The ability to 'serve', either for the company or the customer without expecting more rewards.

Negotiation

Ability to negotiate in aspects of work, even if it is difficult to do.

"I know if I fail I won't regret it. However, I know one thing I will probably regret is that I never had" iss was chosen as our group name because it was taken from our nickname, which also ends in iss. We hope that in the future this name can lead us to be able to open a business and implement the strategies that we have described above.

~ Jeff Bezos ~
